PUBLIC COMMENT

Ms. Kuykendoll reviewed the rules for giving public comment.

Brenton Bell addressed the board to share information he has heard regarding the reorganization and the perception of adding new position and what is it taking away from teachers.

Tim Totten gave a shout out to choir director Sheri Peterson for the masterwork choir concert. He further expressed his perception of the Fentanyl drug overdose crisis.

Coban Holmes addressed the board regarding the great communication he has been receiving from the district and commending the leadership team for their “super quick, super on spot” communication during last week’s severe weather to ensure parents and families knew what was going on and how things would proceed with student dismissal.

Ruthann Jaquette is the Chair of the City of Grand Ledge Parks and Recreation Committee, of which Dr. Barnes also serves on. She wanted to share that last weekend they held their annual earth day event noting this year’s event concentrated on the clean-up of Oak Park that was devastated during last August’s storm. She shared that approximately 40 young people from the high school volunteered. She commended the students for their hard work noting it is a testament to their character and certainly to GLPS. In closing, she thanked the board for the work they do.

Amanda Service addressed the board regarding an issue with one of her high school students.

COMMENTS FROM STAFF & BOARD

Superintendent Barnes expressed his appreciation to the Central Office Team and Margarita Frommert for their presentations. In addressing some of the public comment, Dr. Barnes reiterated that there are no new positions being added and the reorganization is replacing positions that were vacated and not filled to make the operation of the district more efficient and effective reiterating these are replacement positions, not new positions. He noted he has set up times at each of our respective buildings to provide any staff the opportunity to talk with him about any concerns they may have, or just come chat. He expressed his appreciation for the feedback on our communications noting it is important to us to keep our families in the loop and thanked our Communications Director, John Ellsworth, noting he does a great job. He thanked Mrs. Jaquette for coming and sharing the great work of our students. In closing, he noted he would reach out the Service family in the morning to have a more private conversation.

Dr. Glasscoe expressed her appreciation for the focus on teaching & learning. She thanked Mrs. Frommert noting she has confirmed the great work we are doing commenting she hears over and over that GLPS is a leader in many areas.

Mr. Cwayna commented it is great to hear about all the positive things going on, but believes the conversation need to be expanded to include things we can improve on, challenges we can work through as a board.

Ms. Kuykendoll thanked all of tonight's presenters, gave kudos to COLT noting the work is not possible without them and commending the health center and the collaborative partnerships in that space. She shared she had attended the International Night and while the event was outstanding there was a lot of events scheduled that day that made getting around very difficult which could be a conversation for the board in how we are scheduling activities at our facilities.

Mrs. DuFort commended the work of the Governance Committee and the COLT to get the new NEOLA policies in place, having the COLT and building presentations, the implementation of the health center, noting the district is way ahead of where we were while recognizing there is always ways to get better but encouraging everyone to look at how far we have come in such a short time.

President Shannon recognized the Service family noting the board's trust that Dr. Barnes will be in touch to assist them. She further noted the board is here to be problem solvers and support the continuous growth of the district. She thanked Mrs. Waterbury and Mr. Deschaine for their presentations noting she feels they are very beneficial.
